MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: FOIA

Bob:

1. Senators DeConcini and Leahy complain that we do not give them the kind of "hard, specific evidence" of asset losses from FOIA that Bill Webster does. Stein says that's because we have not had assets murdered.

2. Senator Hatch wants material that can be used to convince the public. John Stein sanitized my testimony (taken from yours) and added a little. I think we should look at what Webster does on FOIA and see whether we can come closer to approaching it in specificity. You might call Hatch and find out when he needs it. He may be in Utah; I would think early January would be soon enough.
